"WILLIS TO GRESHAM"

Important Dispatches Regarding Affairs in Honolulu.
AMERICAN CITIZENS CONDEMNED TO DEATH FOR COMPLICITY.
Secretary Gresham Sent Instructions—A Remarkable Change of Policy by the Administration—The Dispatch Submitted to Congress and Calls Forth Pertinent Remarks From Captain Bontelle.

Washington, February 8.—The President today sent Congress the latest telegram from Minister Willis and Secretary Gresham's instructions in reply, shows a more serious condition of affairs than was reported in the Press dispatches.
Minister Willis to Secretary Gresham: "Honolulu, January 30.
"The revolt was over the ninth. The casualties were, government, one; royalists, two. Court martial convened the 17th and tried thirty-eight cases. Two and two hundred more remain to be tried. There are daily arrests. Gulick, the former minister, and Seward, the minister, a major in the federal army are both Americans, and are being held in custody. The former minister, T. B. Walker, formerly in the United States army is sentenced to imprisonment for life and $5000 fine. Other sentences are not disclosed, but probably will be death. I have requested copies of the record for our government to determine its duty before final sentence, but have received no answer yet. There is bitter feeling and threats of mob violence, which the arrival of the Philadelphia yesterday may prevent. Liliuokalani was made a prisoner on the 16th, and on the 24th relinquished her claim and swore allegiance to the republic. Imporing clemency for the Hawaiians. The government replies to Liliuokalani: 'This document cannot be taken to exempt you in the slightest degree from personal and individual liability for complicity in the late conspiracy.' It denies that she had any rights since January 14th, 1893, when they accepted a new constitution. It fully appreciates her call to the disaffected to recognize the republic and will give full consideration to her unselfish appeal for clemency for the participants."

Secretary Gresham to Minister Willis: "Washington, February 7.
"If American citizens are condemned to death by military tribunal, not for actual participation in the reported revolution, but for complicity only, or if condemned to death by a military tribunal, not for actual participation, and not after an open and fair trial with an opportunity for defense, demand the delay of the execution. In either case report to your government the evidence relied on to support a death sentence."
"GRESHAM."

A CHANGE OF POLICY.
Reading of the Hawaiian Correspondence in the House Provokes Mr. Bontelle to Speak.

Washington, February 8.—The House went into committee of the whole on the appropriation bill. General debate was dispensed with and the bill was read for adoption and discussion under the five minute rule. The progress of the bill was interrupted by a report of Cleveland's message, and the announcing of the issue and sale of bonds. It was delivered to the House, which listened to it with great attention. At the close a ripple of applause swept over the floor. The message was referred to the committee on ways and means and the House again went into committee of the whole on the pending bill. Discussion was interrupted by Major Prudden, the President's executive clerk, who appeared with a message from the President.

Speaker Crisp resumed the chair and the message was received. Mr. Bontelle asked that the message be read, and Speaker Crisp declared that would not be in order, and that the committee should resume its session.

Mr. Bontelle—"It seems to me that out of respect to the Chief Magistrate,
